Warnings

- Changing your mind can be costly. You need to give at least 3 days advance notice to withdraw your fixed deposit before the maturity date and you may also need to pay early withdrawal (prepayment) costs and fees.
- Please think carefully before you choose to open a Fixed Deposit, or reinvest all or part of your money on maturity.
- Getting the maximum benefit from a Fixed Deposit means locking it away. The downside of this is that your money is not readily available to invest elsewhere if an opportunity arises, or simply for you to spend on some unplanned event.

 Applicable rates of interest (if any) to each category of Account(s) and currencies are determined by the Bank, at its sole discretion, and the Bank reserves the right to change the applicable rate of interest. The Bank will inform the customer of the change in the methodology to calculate days and fees at least 60 calendar days in advance of change.
